UNIPOLSAI AND BANCO ALIMENTARE TOGETHER AT THE 19TH NATIONAL FOOD COLLECTION DAY

The insurance company confirms its social commitment

Once again, this year UnipolSai Assicurazioni will stand close to more than 135,000 volunteers of Fondazione Banco Alimentare Onlus who will be working in 11,000 supermarkets throughout Italy tomorrow. Their request is always the same: give away shelf-stable food to be distributed to 8,989 charitable organizations and help nearly 2 million poor.

Not just an act of generosity directed to all those who – there were 6 million registered poor people in 2013 – today, in Italy, are unable to afford the meagre cost for their own food, but also a strong signal from UnipolSai, which has once again confirmed its social commitment in line with the social responsibility actions of the Unipol Group. The goal of these actions has always been to promote the health and welfare of people. They translate into support for initiatives, such as the National Food Collection Day, that make it possible to improve the life of every individual and the community.

With its Corporate Sponsorship Program, UnipolSai Assicurazioni and the Unipol Group intend to be always close to the people and the community, supporting projects that span the arts, culture, sport, the environment, entertainment, scientific research and social commitment, as in the case of tomorrow's important event.
