

UNIPOLSAI, SUPPORTING THE INHABITANTS AFFECTED BY THE FLOODING IN THE MARCHE REGION

A structured plan of action is hereby launched to:

- facilitate claims management
- grant significant extensions and deferments
- provide appropriate, timely responses

Bologna, 21 September 2022

UnipolSai launched a structured, integrated plan of action to help the inhabitants affected by the recent flooding in the Marche Region to support the customers and agencies resident in the areas hit by the flooding.

In this difficult situation, UnipolSai undertakes to facilitate claims management, allow significant extensions and deferments and provide appropriate, timely responses by opening a toll-free number 800 754646.

More specifically, the initiatives planned to help the affected communities are as follows:

Non-Life Business

- Extensions and deferments: extension of the delay periods from 15 to 90 days with expiration dates between 1/09-30/11/22, three-month deferral of the monthly automatic portfolio procedures (cancellations, blocking, charges), suspension of recoupment of excesses and premiums which have not yet been reimbursed and outstanding premiums up to 30/11/2022
- Self-certifications to replace the documentation normally required
- Agency measures: allocation of a significant amount of extraordinary Motor TPL discounts to support people and businesses in real financial difficulty

Life Business

- Extension of premium payment terms from 30 days to 90 days for premiums falling due between 01/09/2022 and 30/11/2022

- Contract reactivation. Extension from 6 to 12 months, up to 31/01/23, of contract reactivation deadlines, without any requests for further healthcare assessments or further declarations on the health status of the insured party.
- Suspension of redemption penalties up to 30/04/2023

These support measures are for customers resident in the following municipalities of the Marche Region: Senigallia (AN), Sassoferrato (AN), Arcevia (AN), Ostra (AN), Serra De Conti (AN), Barbara (AN), Trecastelli (AN), Corinaldo (AN), Cantiano (PU), Cagli (PU), Frontone (PU), Pergola (PU), Serra Sant'Abbondio (PU).
